Not Gonna

702

I've got to find me a new guy
Butterfly
Dimples, Meelah, Orish
702, yeah
Yeah
Oh why, oh why so stupid of me
To take you back so easily
I'm going going out of my mind
To take you back a second time
Why must you put me through
So much heartache and pain
Tell me am I insane
To let you do me this way
I'm not gonna take you back
'Cause boy I don't play that
No matter what you say
You treat love like a game
I'm not gonna take you back
'Cause boy I don't play that
No matter what you say
You treat love like a game
Oh no, oh no how dumb could I be
To think that you love me
These lies all the time
I should've known you weren't mine
Why must you put me through
So much heartache and pain
Tell me am I insane
To let you do me this way
I'm not gonna take you back
'Cause boy I don't play that
No matter what you say
You treat love like a game
I'm not gonna take you back
'Cause boy I don't play that
No matter what you say
You treat love like a game
Oh no, oh no where did you go
Why did you leave me all alone

You're spending most of your time
With other tricks on your mind
I've got to find me a new guy
Got to find me, a new guy, see I, can do it again
I've got to find me a new guy
Got to find me, a new guy, see I, can do it again
Look what you've done to me
You broke my heart
You put a burden on me
So torn apart
Look what you've done to me
You broke my heart
You put a burden on me
'Cause boy I don't play that
No matter what you say
You treat love like a game
'Cause boy I don't play that
No matter what you say
You treat love like a game
'Cause boy I don't play that
