

Keep It On the Low (feat. Kyle Denmead)

Caskey

Keep this fuckin' shit on the low, bitch
Can you keep this on the low?
I got a girl back in my place
And I ain't tryin to complain she do what she do okay she my age
But you a queen, been lost in the thighs in your jeans
My work devise in the scheme
Of how you and me can go down town if you know what I mean
Sexual, probably say I'm a professional
Oh, the way I see you the next to know
I've been coming, you the next to blow
Hoping it's me on time, like the metronome
You a freak get the extra dome, we do more than the X and O
Do it all but I really think it's best you know
It's gotta be on the low
I don't mean to sound forward baby, something on my mind
Wanna put you on the sofa darlin'
You can get it tonight, girl (it's gotta be on the low)
I'mma do what you want with your body
I ain't put it no fire
You can get it like you want, where you want
And the one can .and keep it on the low
Yeah!Gotta keep this on the low
Now tell me bout your fantasies
Tryin to drip it low with my body
You wet enough for the two of us, I hear the Bacardi
I'm loving the way that you party
Thinking that our combination supposed to be naughty
Tell me what you think bout it
Close to the fact, then we can drink bout it
You know how I be, cloudy
You the one that like to talk, I'll just be about it
I don't say a word, but can I hit it real early
Till the day cold in the morning
Cleaner than a Drake verse, but she so dirty
And shit about the pop off
First thing was the shirt so the top off
I paused her, said before the next go
.one thing that you gotta know
It's gotta be on the low
I don't mean to sound forward baby, something on my mind
Wanna put you on the sofa darlin
You can get it tonight, girl (it's gotta be on the low)

I'mma do what you want with your body
I ain't puttin up no fight
You can get it like you want, where you want
And the one can .and keep it on the low
Yeah yeah
Low low, yeah yeah
You gotta keep it on the low, low lowHey yo, in the middle of the night, yeah
We'll be lovers on the part time
Locked up in the the bedroom with the hand cuffs on the bedspread
Have you doing hard time
.capitol punishment, and I love the way that you be sayin my government you say you want some of it, I'll give you the whole thing
Just keep that lil kid shit on the side
I'm a grown man, and I'm good like the sexes
When you talk loud you accumulate exes
Saving for the young, but that shit reckless Imma have my tongue coordinatin with your necklace
You can feel the esses, I'm a freak yo you a beauty I'm hittin beast mode
Deep hard, and you got a deep throat
And Imma dig deep to so just keep lowI don't mean to sound forward baby, something on my mind
Wanna put you on the sofa darlin
You can get it tonight, girl (it's gotta be on the low)
I'mma do what you want with your body
I ain't puttin up no fight
You can get it like you want, where you want
And the one can .and keep it on the low
Yeah yeah
Low low, yeah yeah
You gotta keep it on the low, low lowI don't mean to sound forward baby, something on my mind
Wanna put you on the sofa darlin
You can get it tonight, girl (it's gotta be on the low)
I'mma do what you want with your body
I ain't puttin up no fight
You can get it like you want, where you want
And the one can .and keep it on the low
Yeah yeah
Low low, yeah yeah
You gotta keep it on the low, low low
