Panama City Beach (feat. Rahn Harper)

Pink Slip

I'm dressed in all black like a funeral and she in all white look like an angel and I've been catching vibes all night I could be the one who could ignite your life

And she said btw. what's your name? come take a hit of the shit that I'm sipping on ride my wave(x2)

riding the waves, waves waves waves waves(x2)

panama city beach and it's only for you and me(x2)

lord I've been sinning so call up the bishop tripping on beaches with beautiful women I feel ignited I fight for my life as I write out these rhymes in the ocean I'm diving the cliffs that I'm climbing my hands full of chalk view is amazing once I'm at the top I keep it moving whenever I'm lost everyday living my life like a boss

riding the waves, waves waves waves waves(x4)
panama city beach and it's only for you and me(x4)
