

Rain of the Times

Dover

Wait until the light comes.
And I forgot how to sleep and I forgot how to dream rest my dear, my dear
rest my dear, my dear.
And I forgot how to get it and I forgot how they smell
rest my dear, my dear
rest my dear, my dear.
Do you remember when I told you I wouldn't change a word that I said if you don't mind I'm gonna break you another rain, another rain of the times.
Wait until the lights comes.
