

Give Back My Heart

Lyle Lovett

I'm a traveling man don't tie me down
There's just too much living going all around
A man he's got to see what he can see
I love the road and I love the air
And I don't worry hell I never care

I love my women sometimes they love meBut I was got one day I still don't know how

I didn't even like that town

This fellow said, Stranger why don't you just go on home

Well I said, Man that's where I'm headed to

And you couldn't stop me if you knew what to do

And I left and I planned to go aloneBut the road was long and home was far

So I stopped off at this little cowboy-looking bar

I walked on through the door and she just smiled

In a long pony tail and a pretty white dress

She said, Hi bull riders do it best

I said, Oh my God what's your name my name's LyleAnd I said, Ooh give back my heart chipkicker-redneck woman

Take your boots and walk out of my life

And I said, Ooh give back my heart chipkicker-redneck woman

I can't be no cowgirl paradiseAnd I looked at her and she looked at me

And I looked back and she looked back

And we went out together for a walk

Her eyes were bright just like the stars

But she drove a pickup said she hated cars

But loved to ride around out after darkAnd I said, Ooh give back my heart chipkicker-redneck woman

Take your boots and walk out of my life

And I said, Ooh give back my heart chipkicker-redneck woman

I can't be no cowgirl paradiseAnd I told her redneckness has got to be a disease

You catch it on your fingers and it just crawls right up your sleeves

Ooh give back my heart chip kicker-redneck woman

I can't be no cowgirl paradiseNow how she did it I'll never know

But it's been maybe 20 years or so

And she cooks the supper and I try to pay the rent

But I'm a traveling man don't tie me down

There's just too much living go all around

But I can't figure out quite where it wentWhen I think ooh give back my heart chipkicker-redneck woman

Take your boots and walk out of my life

When I think ooh give back my heart chipkicker-redneck woman

I can't be no cowgirl paradiseSaid I can't be no cowgirl paradise

Said I can't be no cowgirl paradise
