

Aquarium

Arthur Fiedler

Yeah

Do you feel it?

Don't answer, that was a rhetorical question

Rhetorical (rhetorical) Forever life been never nice, we expedite the process

And every night I get advice, cause life is way too complex

Heaven's lights are hella bright, ironic how that came to be

But can't you see? This angel speaks

She's saying the place is safe for me

I told "wait or me," the make believer normally disguise

Transform before your eyes and glorifies euphoric highs

The morning rises and I'm fast asleep

Somewhere off in the master suite

Having dreams of Latin queens and nasty freaks

My mind, it wonders to places yonder and even farther

When I'm sleep walking I'm Stephen Jobs or I'm Peter Parker

A genius author, a Jesus preaching just to feed his daughter

The weed to spark up, yeah he's a goner, fuck these premadonnas

I'll always wonder what happened 3000 years ago

I like to toy with the idea that we really know

Is what I do important in the grand scheme of things?

In my head these dreams are dreamt, trust me we are kings I'm living a blindfold, like where did the time go

I know you hear me out there, can you sign off?

I'mma follow you wherever your mind goes

Baby I'mma follow you wherever your mind goes

Can you wait girl, so I won't be

Hold you closely, so we don't speak

Will you follow me wherever my mind goes?

So will you follow me wherever my mind goes? I'm just trying to make it all make sense

As you hypothesize on how to monetize, take advantage of

All the time we all behind, get lost in this Aquarium

America, the standard of vanity when the camera's up

We become celebrities, distract from the hysteria

Confessions that I have and curiosity about life and death

Most of us will never understand it, we just like the quest

Read about the meaning of dreaming and all its messages

Sedatives that take me to God, witness his fetishes

We all in search for substance, that gives you pain and numbness

Circumstances advance the second chances, for this beloved

I wish I could tell you that I didn't see this coming

But I'm ready for it all to end, die before tomorrows trend
Your life, it all depends on dollars spent and knowledge gained
Darkness on the brain, lost inside, forgotten days
Life, it works in such mysterious ways
All these years that I pray, hope you hear what I say I'm living a blindfold, like where did the time go
I know you hear me out there, can you sign off?
I'mma follow you wherever your mind goes
Baby I'mma follow you wherever your mind goes
Can you wait girl, so I won't be
Hold you closely, so we don't speak
Will you follow me wherever my mind goes?
So will you follow me wherever my mind goes? Wherever my mind goes
I'mma follow you wherever your mind goes
Wherever your mind goes
Will you follow me wherever my mind goes?
I'mma follow you wherever your mind goes
I'mma follow you wherever your mind goes
Will you follow me wherever my mind goes?
Will you follow me wherever my mind goes?
I'mma follow you wherever your mind goes
I'mma follow you wherever your mind goes
Will you follow me wherever my mind goes?
Will you follow me wherever my mind goes?
