Final Destination

Within Temptation

I escaped my final moment but it's turning back at me On every corner I can feel it waiting And just a moment, no awareness, I could easily slip away And then I'll be gone foreverI'm searching, I'm fighting for a way To get through, to turn it awayIt's waiting, always trying I feel the hands of fate, they're suffocating Tell me what's the reason, is it all inside my head? Can't take it no moreAll around me I see danger and it's closing in on me Every second I can hear it breathing I can't stand the fear inside me 'cause it's leading me astray And it will be my ending I'm searching, I'm fighting for a way To get through, to turn it awayIt's waiting, always trying I feel the hands of fate, they're suffocating Tell me what's the reason, is it all inside my head? Can't take it no moreBut no one faced what's coming my way And I will let my fear fade away Whatever may be, I'll have to find outIt's waiting, always trying Feel the hands of fate, they're suffocating Tell me what's the reason, is it all inside my head? Can't take it no more
