

Slowmotion

The Whiskey Hollow

Slow down, shout
You got too much love to give now

Remember when golden waves
Crashed on a sea of navy blue
Calling you a waste of love

Youâ€™ve been talking to yourself again
I know that things shine
Come and cope when Iâ€™m still struggling
To forget

How we moved
In slowmotion
Yeah, how we moved
In slowmotion

Speed things up
On a lazy Sunday afternoon
And maybe just waste some time
Itâ€™s not hard to do

Or we can
Breathe in, breathe out
Breathe in, breathe out
Breathe in, breathe out
Breathe in, breathe.. in,

And can move,
In slowmotion

Yeah, we can move
In slowmotion
In slowmotion

In slowmotion

In slowmotion
