

Best One

NxWorries

Yes love, yes love

My fault

That's my, that's my living You love me like you knew I could be leaving in a moment's notice

You telling me to stay till the morning

You know a nigga homeless

You give me everything inside the showroom

Your old school trophies

You used to work the small farm

Now you working corporate, dipping in the sportswear

Well I hope I never have to cut you off

My best oneBy far

That's my, that's my living I think she could be in it for the long run

My niggas said I'm on one

I never knew a love stronger

My heart is a great big boulder

Hey, you fuck me like you know this could be something like your very last moment

I could leave it at the drop of a Fedora

But damn it girl I want you

I hope I never have to cut you off

Your my best oneBy far

That's my, that's my living

Yes love, yes love

By far

That's my, that's my living I hope I never have to cut you off, I swear to god

You with me but you know I could be

You with me but you know that I could do it by my lonely

You fix a nigga cheese, grits and cornbread

You know a nigga hungry

I swear to god

She's such a show off

She's such a cold one

She know she go so hard

She's such a star

She's such a show off

She knew she go so hard

She's such a cold one

She's such a star
