

What's In Store for Me

The Kinks

I wanna know what is to be, to see what life's cut out for me
I'm waiting for my fate 'cause I know I've done wrong
I wanna know just what's in store for me
I wish I had a crystal ball, to see my rise and see my fall
I've done a lot of right, but also done some wrong
I wanna know just what's in store for me
And so I'll wait a while and wait a little longer
I'll just have to wait and see
I think a lot but I'll stop trying, I'll just get old before my time
I'll live the life I've got but I don't sleep at night
I wanna know just what's in store for me
I'll live the life I've got but I don't sleep at night
I wanna know just what's in store for me
I wanna know just what's in store for me
