I

Kevin Martin

I have these fears you know
To let my feelings show,
My everything
Am I anything to you?

I've lost the will to speak
And I have no air to breathe
Am I surrendering?
Am I anything to you?

If we could swim like the seas
Or change our colors like the leaves
Would we still want it?
Want it all

We have no seeds to sew
We have no space to grow
Am I uncovering?
Am I anything to you?

If we could swim like the seas
Or change our colors like the leaves
Would we still want it?
Would we still want it?

In I
A moments space in I
Oh what are we like
A moments space in I

We want our hearts to bleed
I wait for songs to sing
We sell our souls to be
I wait for everything

In I
A moments space in I
Oh what are we like
A moments space in I
