Count Me Out

Sarah Slean

Have a coffee out on the freeway
I hear the morning peace
I think of beaches I think of dying
I buy a magazine
And change the channels
Wash the windows
And be my children's dreams
And frozen dinners
Drak conversation
What does it all mean?
What does it all mean?If this is the car I must drive to the job
That I must have for the house
And the man I don't love
Count me out
Count me outMeasure the minutes wait for the weekend
Something will happen then
I dreamt of something and I'm out of hiding
Until I bleed again
'Til I change the channels
I change the bed sheets
Be my children's drames
Change the channels
Change the bed sheets
What does it all mean?
What does it all mean?If this is the car I must drive to the job
That I must have for the house
And the man I don't love
Count me out
Count me out
