Tokyo

Lianne La Havas

I am neon
Cold neon
Not a mysteryAll I've every known is
How to be alone
It comes naturallyOh baby, can I hold you?
Such a cold, cold night
I thought I wouldn't need to
I've got my neon lights
I'm longing just to feel you
To know that it's alright
Oh baby baby baby babyI'm out of sight
I'm out of mind
Alone in TokyoYou're out of reach
Wrong place, wrong time
Alone in TokyoHere I go again
To and fro again
Overnight deliveryGrew a thicker skin
Now it's growing thin
You can see right into meOh baby, can I hold you?
Such a cold, cold night
I thought I wouldn't need to
I've got my neon lights
If only just to feel you
To know that it's alright
Oh baby baby baby babyI'm out of sight
I'm out of mind
Alone in TokyoYou're out of reach
Wrong place, wrong time
Alone in TokyoI'm out of sight
Going out of my mind
Alone in TokyoYou're out of reach
Wrong place, wrong time
Alone in TokyoOh, in Tokyo
