Sunflower

CECILIO & Kapono

If this world were a flower garden
And your smiling face a flower there in
Sunflower with the golden hair
I would know you anywhere

I could visit you in moonlight
Wouldn't make no difference
In the darkness you shine bright
Sunflower with the eyes of blue
I'd do everything just for you

La la la la la la la
Oh, Sunflower makes me sing

La la la la la la la
Oh, All the joy you bring to me

And we could make this world a flower garden
I would take you in my arms then
Sunflower i will take you there
I'd be our garden everywhere

La la la la la la la...

All the joy you bring
Sunflower makes me sing

And if this world were a flower garden
And your smiling face a flower there in
Sunflower with the eyes of blue
I'd do everything just for you.
