The Cruise

Dragpipe

I'll always waste my life away
Sitting on the couch and watch TV
I didn't have any drugs today
Or yesterdayTomorrow's just another song
I got no money, my veins are gone
Waiting for the bad news to come my way
So I can take my life awayI'm just waiting for the bad news
This is the fucking cruise
I'm just waiting for the bad news
This is the fucking cruiseLaying on my back, I stare at the sun
Looking for the right words to eat the gun
I always thought that I would run
Just for funI'm just waiting for the bad news
This is the fucking cruise
I'm just waiting for the bad news
This is the fucking cruiseWaiting for the bad news
This is the fucking cruise
I'm just waiting for the bad news
This is the fucking cruiseI'd always wait my life away
Sitting on the floor and watch the door
I didn't have any help today
Or yesterdayTomorrow's just another waste
Got no reason to even stay
Wait for the bad news to come and play
Come and playI'm just waiting for the bad news
This is the fucking cruise
I'm just waiting for the bad news
This is the fucking cruiseLife is a fucking cruise
Life is a fucking cruise
Life is a fucking cruise
Life is a fucking cruise
