Inn Town

Whiskeytown

Parking lot, movie screen
I can't feel anything
Cigarettes, beat up TV
I can't feel anythingNow that I, I'm inn town
I feel fine, fine for nowHang around with the people
That I use to be
Hang around on a corner
Waiting to go, have a seatNow that I, I'm inn town
I feel fine, fine for now50 cents or a dollar three
I don't owe you anything
Spent a life on a heart that would Rather not feel anythingI can try
I can see
I can want it to be
I can laugh
(I can laugh)
I can feel
(I can feel)
I can say anything without dreamingNow that I, I'm inn town
I, I'm inn townHang around with the people
We use to be
We hang around on a corner
Waiting to go, have a seatAnd I can try
I can see
I can want it to be
I can laugh
(I can laugh)
I can feel
(I can feel)
I can say anything that seems real
It's just like a dream
(Like a dream)I can feel
(I can feel)
I can laugh
I can want it to still to be real
It's a dream I have had
It's the lastNow it seems
Now that I, I'm inn town
I feel fine, fine for now

Now that I, I'm inn town
Now that I, I'm inn town
