Daath

Awake to the sound of emptiness
Alone in a room that is filled
With the darkest of light
I was told there was nothing beyond here
How do I know what side I'm on?
How do I know what side I'm on?
How do I know what side I'm on?
How do I know what side I'm on?
Breathe, a captive with nothing
But the thoughts increasing
Worsening, I don't belong here
But I can't find my exit
This is where they all come
To hunt me down, hunt me down
Where they go to hunt me down
They hunt me down
Weigh out the options

Pave the narrow
I know what you're thinking
Come on, man, I swear you can do this
Come on, man, I swear you can do this
I break free from this room they built for me
I break free from this room they built for me
This is where they all come
To hunt me down, hunt me down
Where they go to hunt me down
They hunt me down
I tore out my lying eyes
So they locked me up
I tore out my lying eyes
So they locked me up
Preying on the innocent
Preying on the innocent
