

The Dog Barks

Theodore

You are an image created by me
I want you to keep me cozy and warm
I want you to keep my feelings work
In order to stay alive No! You shouted, I am something real
Without me there is no beginning
Without me there is no end
Without me life will be an endless, miserable time Image created by me
I can make it without your help
Only thing you try to do
Is keeping me unsober No! You shouted, I am something real
Without me there is no creation
Without me you would desperately ask
For a drop of inspiration
No! You are an image created by me
Illusion!
