Lamb of God

The human confrontation, I've build a phobia.
It takes my essence somewhere,
Somewhere to take control.I may be far from rocking.
I am the one alone.
I may be far behind lines.
And made them turn away.I want to know, hey you, watch out!
I've made them turn to cripple, hey you, watch out!
When I will know, who'll know, back fight!
Why time would let me die to controllI fear nothing, why don't you know!?
I rip my mind and why don't you bleed!?
I fear no one, why you turn back!?
I may not stop
