Falling In And Out Of Love

Lita Ford

We've changed, a new change of season
Autumn came, we went, I went insane
Never was winter so cold, no
Look away from the homeward road
I'm feeling love in a daydream
Making love first morning light
Walking slowly in the summer rain
Alone I lie, fantasize
I'm falling in and out of love
I'm falling in and out of love
Slip inside my dream, dream away with me
'Cause I'm falling in and out of love
Like a diamond, never our love would break
But in a heartbeat thrown us both away
Set me free to live my life like a rolling stone
Look away from the homeward road
I'm feeling love in a daydream
Making love first morning light
Walking slowly in the summer rain
Alone I lie, fantasize
Falling in and out of love
I'm falling in and out of love
Slip inside my dream, dream away with me
'Cause I'm falling in love
Falling in and out of love
I'm falling in and out of love
I'm falling in and out of love
I'm falling in and out of love
I'm falling in and out of love
I'm falling in and out of love
I'm falling in and out of love
I'm falling in and out of love
Can be an idea
