You Are Beautiful

The Stylistics

You are beautiful
Not just because your eyes are
Although I know that's true, my love
You're beautiful because you're you

You are beautiful
Not just because your smile is
Although that's plain to see, my love
You're beautiful because you smile at me

And when I need a friend
Someone to pull me through
You are everything that I'll ever need
You are my strength
And like very few are

You are beautiful
Not just because your face is
Not just because of all the things you cannot buy
You are beautiful, beautiful
Because of what you are inside

You are beautiful, beautiful
Because of what you are inside
Woo...woo...ooh...ooh...
