

Can You Tell

Margo Guryan

CAN YOU TELL Words and Music by Margo Guryan Can you look into my face

And see the change that has taken place

Can you tell

Can you tell I love you

From the look in my eyes I'm not sure my feelings show

Maybe you'd be the last

To notice the change

Can you tell I love you

From the look in my eyes From the look in my eyes

Do you know how badly

I want to tell you all about it

There's a smile that I can't hide

Because loving you the way I do

Makes me feel good inside Even if we never touch

If you knew, it would mean so much to me

Can you tell

Do you see

Can you tell I love you
