The Classic Crime

Friends, I will keep you like trophies
In my heart to remember how loneliness
Was a faded dream on 219th streetWe were more than just young, we were full of it
And no one could touch us or take us in
Watching the sunset from the roof
We planned our next adventureI was nineteen and young
Thought I had it all figured out
The world was our oyster
And we dove in to get the pearl outNow, we are swimming in memories
How we wish we could go backI've got a sneaking suspicion
That hindsight only favors good vision
But Im not one to complain when it's all I dream ofWe were more than just useless and stupid kids
Music had moved us, we shook our fists
As we sang along at the top of our lungsNow, we are swimming in memories
How we wish we could go back
We hold the hopes that someday we'll see the world again
Like that, like that, like that, like thatNow, we are swimming in memories
How we wish we could go back
We hold the hopes that someday we'll see the world again
Like that, like that, oh, like that, like that, yeah
