Niobe

Dargaard

I fall so far
I fall so far

And every moment everything we used to share
Will she be waiting when I call, will she be there?

And every moment every thought that passes by Only reminds me of the heart it must have tried

Niobe, niobe, (unintelligible)

I fall so far
I fall so far

I fall so far
I fall so far

Niobe, niobe
Niobe, niobe
