Chico

Overdub

In the middle of the night she struts around
A yellow taxi to the heart of downtown
Black stockings and a cocktail dress
Purple eyeshadow
It's so hard for her to meet a man
With a secret they won't understand
But her emotions are much deeper than...
The underground freakshowNow if a man feels like a woman
Does that make him less a man
If he hides the truth inside his painted hands
No esta una chica
Un chico un chico
No esta una chica
Un chico un chico, claroAfter hours under candlelight
She pulled a vision in a suit and tie
Masculine with a willing smile
They went home together"you know I'm different than you think I am."
He leaned over by the bedside stand
The suit and tie had a gun in his hand
An affair to remember...Chorus
