Sometime

Cousteau

Treat me kind, keep me safe
Show me love, I'll embrace
If you take me home where I was born
I'll find peace of mind, somehow
Give me luck, show me grace
Give me time and a little space
If you take me back where I belong
I'll find peace of mind, somehow
Look for light for your conception
Lay me down for your inspection
Somehow we'll find a way, sometime but not today
There's somethin' I need to say, sometimes
Somehow we'll find a way, I wish this was yesterday
Then maybe tomorrow I'll remember sometimes, sometimes
Give me hope, in life I pray
It's good when I'm bad, I'm sorry to say
When I feel you inside
Deep within me, I'll find peace of mind, somehow
I'm a living breathing contradiction

Can't go through this crucifixion
Sacrifice love for affection
There's pain in pleasure's resurrection
Somehow we'll find a way, sometime but not today
There's somethin' I need to say, sometimes
Somehow we'll find a way, I wish this was yesterday
Then maybe tomorrow I'll remember, sometimes, sometimes
After the rain, then comes the sun
We will be one again
An aphrodisiac rejection
Immaculate is our conception
Somehow we'll find a way, sometime but not today
There's somethin' I need to say, sometimes
Somehow we'll find a way, I wish this was yesterday
Then maybe tomorrow I'll remember, sometimes, sometimes
Sometimes, sometimes
Treat me kind, keep me safe
Show me love, sometimes
