

Chains Hit the Ground

Leeland

I'm holding on to you
It's all I know to do
When fear has had me bound
When the enemies so loud
There's freedom in this truth
My salvation is in you
And I remember the nails You took for me
When You died in my shame and iniquity
Jesus You've set me free
The thorns of my pain You wore in a crown
When you bowed Your head
Your love was poured out
And my chains hit the ground
You are the rock I've found
Above the shifting ground
Amid a raging war your the One I'm fighting for
For all of my years
My banner will be cleared
I am yours
And even though the waves
They crashed below
I'm holding on to love
I'm holding on to love
I am yours
Forever all my days I lay before Your Holy love
I'm holding on to love.
