

You Got The Bomb

Brian McKnight

I can't remember
The last time I felt this way
You're keeping a smile on my face
You know exactly how I tick
Every time I light the wick
Seems like you're ready to explode
I want you to know You got the bomb
Just can't get enough
You got the bomb, bomb
Just keep on blowin' me up
You got the bomb, bomb
Just can't get enough
You got the bomb, bomb, blowin' me up I recall
The first time I kissed your lips
(Think I'm gonna shout about it)
(Baby, there's no doubt about it)
Whenever you want me, girl, I'm there
Whatever the time, girl I don't care
I got no place to go
Baby, I know You got the bomb
Just can't get enough
You got the bomb, bomb
Just keep on blowin' me up
You got the bomb, bomb
You got the bomb, bomb, blowin' me up
