

Heavy Nights

THE SOLUTIONS

(Just from listening, this is what I got)

There's nothing I can tell you
There's nothing you left in my hands
I have no feelings 'bout this day,

There's nothing I can tell you
The worlds are just going down
So I just let you walk away, oh

So Heavy Night has taken you away
Sudden Heavy Night without a kind of warning

Every word I told you
The worlds are just going down
So I just let you walk away, oh

So Heavy Night has taken you away
Sudden Heavy Night without a kind of warning
So Heavy Night has taken us away
Sudden Heavy Night without a kind of warning
I'll wait until the morning
Till the Sun

So Heavy Night has taken you away
Sudden Heavy Night without a kind of warning
So Heavy Night, take yours away!
So Heavy Night Without a kind of warning till the Morning
Now it's through
It's through
We're coming through and Grow
