First Snow In Kokomo

Aretha Franklin

(First snow in Kokomo)
The first snow in Kokomo
Off an Indiana highway, I was on my way to Kokomo
A funny friend named Chuck slipped and bumped his head (oops)
And as we picked him up, asked us had his nose turned red
That was the first snow in KokomoKenny learning to blow his horn
I was feeling right up to it
Could it be done, yes, I could do it
That first snow in KokomoJimmy Dee playing a bass, he was learning to play
Applegate discovered a coronet, almost right away
Reggie expecting a baby, and was Freddy kinda blue
That was the first snow in KokomoJimmy Dee has put his bass away (put away)
And I wonder if Applegate ever learned to play?
Kenny is really, really blowing his horn
And a baby named Moishe has been born (pretty little baby)
Freddy's getting ready to make things right (right on, Freddy)
Since that first snow
That first snow in Kokomo (first snow in Kokomo)
The first snow in Kokomo
