

Wreckless (2009 Remaster)

UFO

So this is it, have we come to the end
No more fun, oh my friend
But I'll take my chances now
Lettin' loose again Wreckless weekends, weekends
Led by my heart, not my head
Tearing this whole world apart I found something no one steals
It's love of life, it's so real
And I know it's hard for you
But here I go again Wreckless weekends, weekends
Led by my heart, not my head
Tearing this whole world apart
Bringing me down when it starts And if it's a lifetime term
Babe, I guess I'll never learn
Got to make a stand right here tonight Got the fever right to my feet
Kicking my heels and I'm coming on heat
Tonight's the night we make it real
Oh baby, it's a steal It's no good tomorrow, it's too far away
I'm keeping my hand in, you gotta stay
There's no time for makeup, just put on your shoes
You know we've got nothing to lose Wreckless, born for a wild weekend
Wreckless, pushing it 'til the end I'm tired of Houston, it sticks in my throat
I'm gonna swim , not gonna float
So break these chains and let me loose
'Cuz if I can't win, I'm gonna choose It's no good tomorrow, it's too far away
I'm keeping my hand in, you gotta stay
There's no time for makeup, just put on your shoes
You know we've got nothing to lose Wreckless, born for a wild weekend
Wreckless, pushing it 'til the end And I can't stand one more lonely night
Without a love that's got no fight
Oh baby , let me know
C'mon sugar, let it show
One more time, we will know
I gotta keep you, can't let you go And I can't stand one more lonely night
Without a love that's got no fight
Oh baby , let me know
C'mon sugar, let it show
One more time, we will know
I gotta keep you, can't let you go Wreckless, born for a wild weekend
Wreckless, pushing it 'til the end Wreckless, born for a wild weekend

Wreckless, pushing it 'til the end
