Love And Do What You Will

Ceo

Love and do what you, love and do what you, what you will
All those words tear us apart
Lies around an aching heart
So take my hand and do whatever you willWatch your step little dreamer
Soon it's all misdemeanor
Suddenly you're a schemer
Mean and heavy like serenaNo islands, no prize stand
Just close your eyes, let go andLove and do what you, love and do what you, what you will
All those words tear us apart
Lies around an aching heart
So take my hand and do whatever you willMixed up, it's hard to see, huh?
Haunting the galleria
Wishing someone would see ya
Sharp but gentle like MariaNo islands, no prize stand
Just close your eyes, let go andLove and do what you, love and do what you, what you will
All those words tear us apart
Lies around an aching heart
So take my hand and do whatever you will (Whatever you will)
All those words tear us apart
Lies around an aching heart
So take my hand and do whatever you will
