New World Messiah

Nocturnal Rites

Alone in a world of silence, I'm crawling in you
Don't ever betray, you feel me - I subdue
Trust you seek, and you'll find a messiah,
Take the stone 'round your neck away
Don't you ever display my fear,
I'm yours - so come what mayOh, and I opened the door
The cold's forevermore
Don't you see, you are your own enemySo I'll fight, stand or fall
Choose my fate, feel how it's calling to us all
Stand or fall, the new world messiah
And the dawn of manThere are times when it beckons to me,
Grips my throat and just pulls me in
Here I am but a shadow's worth, to wash away my sinsOh, and I opened the door
The cold's forevermore
Don't you see, you are your own enemySo I'll fight, stand or fall
Choose my fate, feel how it's calling to us all
Stand or fall, the new world messiah
And the dawn of man
