Aquarian

Sleep

Trapped in a world under leagues of ocean
The clergy arrives with the magic potionI put my mouth into the cup of potion
Sip down the nectar and escape the oceanReaching for the sun, leave Atlantis, escape the sea
Fly into the sky, leave behind Atlantean key
Reaching for the sun, leave Atlantis, escape the sea
Fly into the sky, leave behind Atlantean keyEscape the sea with ascending motion
I touch the sun and return to ocean
