Stone For Your Love

Reef

Wake up now the waters breaking
Death defying and ground shaking
See my heart is full of fire
You'd be a fool to think that you were the only oneI'll be a stone for your love
I'll be a stone for your love
I'll be a stone for your love
I'll be a stone for your loveBlinding charge released as we go
Got a feeling for what we do
See my heart is full of fire
You'd be a fool to think that you were the only oneI'll be a stone for your love
I'll be a stone for your love
I'll be a stone for your love
I'll be a stone for your loveI don't wanna take you home
I don't wanna be alone, tonight or later on alright
I don't wanna take you home
I don't wanna be alone, tonight or later on alrightListen to me alright
Listen to me alright
Listen to me alright
