Heart Beatz

The Sleeping

One day gone, life's not the same without you, we can all be strong
But strength can't bring back the one's we've lost
Holding on, moments will last always inside of our hearts
But what good are hearts when their beats have stopped?My friend it hurts that you're gone, you should still be here
The world knows it wasn't your timeTaken, taken away and screaming, don't go, don't
We know you're needed here with us, it's so hard moving on
We wake up everyday without a friend knowing it wasn't his timePassing on we know that you're looking out for, looking out for us all
So hard to believe that you're not with us
You can't bring back the ones you've lost
You can't bring back the ones you've lostMy friend it hurts that you're gone, you should still be here
The world knows it wasn't your timeTaken, taken away and screaming, don't go, don't
We know you're needed here with us, it's so hard moving on
We wake up everyday without a friend knowing it wasn't his timeYou belong down here smiling wide
You belong down here smiling wide
Don't go, go, no, don't go, goYou can't bring back the ones you've lost, no
You can't bring back the ones you've lost, ohTaken, taken away and screaming, don't go, don't
We know you're needed here with us, it's so hard moving on
We wake up everyday without a friend, a friend
Don't go, goYou belong down here smiling wide
You know you're needed here with us
