Soft Touch

George Harrison

You're a soft touch baby
Like a snowflake falling
My whole heart is melting
As a warm sun rises
Into joy, I'm sailing
To your soft touch baby
Eyes that shine from depths of your soul
Fixed by their charm, take my control
Love so sweet as the ocean is wide
Caught by your waves and drawn to your side
As a cool wind blows me
All the treetops whisper
To your soft touch baby
As a new moon rises
Those ideas of Heaven
Fall in your soft touch, baby
Eyes that shine from depths of your soul
Fixed by their charm, take my control
Love so sweet as the ocean is wide
Caught by your waves and drawn to your side
You're a soft touch baby
Like a snowflake falling
My whole heart is melting
As a warm sun rises
Into joy I'm sailing
To your soft touch baby
You're a soft touch baby
Yes, I love that soft touch
Hmm, that soft touch
You're a soft touch baby
Yes, I love that soft touch
