Sinner's Prayer

Sully Erna

To love the right,
yet do so wrong.
To be the weak,
yet burn to be so strong.
go rider, although your ride has been through life.
go rider, i see your soul through the devils eyes.
if i could live my life again, would i have lived that life insane?
go rider, go ride into the night go rider, now see your soul through a woman's eyes

i am a sinner
hold my prayers up to the sun
i am a sinner
heavens closed for what I've done
what have i done
what have i done?
i am sinner hold my prayers up to the sun i am sinner
heavens closed for what I've done
heavens closed for what I've done
