

Cold the Pavement Is

Tenement

You slip and fall
Instead of helping yourself up
You lay there
You cry about how cold the pavement is
And you tell me
Someday
I will hurt
Like you hurt
Someday
I will hurt
Like you hurt
I will never let myself hurt
Like you hurt
I will never let myself hurt
Like you hurt
I've been stepping over cash in twos
My whole life
If you love the taste
You saw those eyes
And you will burn up
With the rest of them
With the rest of them
With the rest of them
With the rest of them
With the rest of them
I will never myself hurt
like you hurt
myself hurt
like you hurt
myself hurt
like you hurt
