

Emancipate

Kelis

Lemme tell you what love is
It's when you meet each other halfway

I'm en route

Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself

Look in your own mirror and know who you are
Live your life accordingly, the truth is on your arm

And it's good, baby

You've done good, baby

Be just who you are, make no apologies
And when it's said and done, who's really sorry?

You're okay, baby

It's okay, baby

Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself

Emancipate yourself

Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Dare to be a better you each chance you get
We're all human and fall short and nothing's over yet
It's up to you, baby
Give 'em you, baby
Life's too short to waste your time, do what you love
Don't be a sheep, it's better, have peace, fly it like a dove
Give 'em you, baby
Give 'em room, baby
Like the Phoenix from the ashes
Or a sunrise off in the distance
I'll try again, I'll try again
I'll try again, we'll try again
Like the Phoenix from the ashes
Or a sunrise off in the distance
I'll try again, I'll try again
I'll try again, we'll try again
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
Emancipate yourself
