

All I Can Do

Kerry Dean

Yesterday I thought you'd stay
I thought you'd see things my way
But now I see my hopes may be dead
I should have known when you said
 I was the one you wanted
Wanting meant nothing more than today
 All I can do is cry over you
 And hope you return someday
 All I can do is cry over you
 Ever since you've gone away
 Every road that I follow
 Leaves me with no tomorrow
I need someone to show me the way
 All I can do is cry over you
 And hope you return someday
 All I can do is cry over you
 Ever since you've gone away
