

I'm Not Leaving (Without Handcuffs)

The Perfect Victim

What once was lost
now has been found I'll plant myself
here in the ground
the years go by the things I try now I may be going crazy
I think I might lose my mind

[prechorus]
I'll try to find a way
this time hold on to yesterday

I wanna tell you that

[chorus]
When you
Look outside your window
I'll be there,
so go ahead,
call the police Cause I dont even care

Now what we had could save us all
don't walk away
don't let me fall
I had no choice
your haunting voice
and now maybe somehow baby
I could make you change your mind

[prechorus]
[chorus]

[guitar solo]

[chorus x2]
