You're Stronger Than Me

Patsy Cline

If you are sincere
When you say you don't care
That our love is just a memory
If the love that we knew, won't bother you
Darlin' you're stronger than me
For if still lovin' you means I'm weak, then I'm weak
For I still fall apart when we speak, or we meet
If the love that we knew, won't bother you
Darlin' you're stronger than me
If you can have fun with some other one
With no thought of what used to be
If it's easy to say that it's better this way
Darlin' you're stronger than me
For if still lovin' you means I'm weak, then I'm weak
For I still fall apart when we speak, or we meet
If the love that we knew, won't bother you
Darlin' you're stronger than me
