Everybody Makes Mistakes

Lacy J. Dalton

Break my heart, hearts get broken
Steal me blind, moneys just a token
But the stranger that I love is even stranger than he seems
The honesty I thought we had was some crazy thing I dreamed
Another B grade movie for lifes big silver screen
But the king of hearts, he always takes the queenOoh baby, ooh baby
Everybody makes mistakes
Everybody makes mistakes
Everybody makes mistakes
Everybody takes and takesTake my love, loves for taking Break my heart, a heart's for breaking
And the strangers that we love are often stranger than they seem
The honesty we talk about is someone's crazy dream
Another B grade movie for lifes big silver screen
But the king of hearts, he always takes the queenOoh baby, ooh baby
Everybody makes mistakes
Everybody makes mistakes
Everybody makes mistakes
Everybody takes and takesEverybody makes mistakes
Everybody makes mistakesEverybody makes mistakes
Everybody makes mistakes
Everybody makes mistakes
Everybody makes mistakesEverybody takes and takes
Everybody makes mistakes
Everybody makes mistakes
Everybody makes mistakes
Everybody makes mistakes
