Plans Are for People

Sonic Syndicate

It's not enough
(It's not enough)
To be yourself
(To be yourself)
You have to be your best self
From the point of viewThere is no kingdom
There's no kingdom in the clouds
You keep preaching the words you receive
Receive from the maker
But what if God is not the sender?So what's it like to be put to sleep
Because it keeps the sun imploding
The same old story, no way to find me
Every time that you want meI try not to make plans
Plans are for people
In control of their own life
It's good for the hunter
Bad for the hunted
See the world for what it isEvery day I searched
(Every day I searched)
Your face for clues
(Your face for clues)
Looking for a window
To strike into you mind
When the chips are downAnd that your heart is any strongerSo what's it like to be put to sleep
Because it keeps the sun imploding
The same old story, no way to find me
Every time that you want meI try not to make plans
Plans are for people
In control of their own life
It's good for the hunter
Bad for the hunted
See the world for what it isAs I walk the surface of the sun
It makes me feel alive
Alive againI try not to make plans
Plans are for people
In control of their own life
It's good for the hunter
Bad for the hunted
See the world for what it isI try not to make plans

Plans are for people
In control of their own life
It's good for the hunter
Bad for the hunted
See the world for what it is

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/