Eyes See All

Cheap Sex

my eyes see all
and i see through you
i can feel the bullshit seeping through
i'm living my life
like a loaded gun
but i know i'm not
the only one
times are changing
and yet i stay the same
but i know i'm not
the one to blame
i know that i'll never learn to relate trapped in this twisted world of hate[Chorus]
because i'm all wound up angers inside me
push my buttons
and throw away my key
i am the one that you love to hate you and me...will never fucking relate.
