

Let Freedom Ring (Live on KEXP

Chuck Prophet

Let there be darkness, let there be light as the hawk cripples the dove Over and over, watch the dove die as they rip out the floorboards above Let there be gossip, let it be cruel I'll still be home before dark I've been through the wringer and I know you have too but their bite was much worse than their barkOh, let freedom ring Come on, let freedom ring
As the rivers rise up over the banks and there's nowhere a poor boy can hideLet there be markets, let 'em run wild as the sisters of mercy just laugh All the lost brothers can drink themselves blind while good fortune breaks hard work in half Let 'em have Mercedes, and a house at the beach sit by the pool and get high Raise a cool bottle to the heavens above while the creatures struggle in the tideAnd let freedom ring
Let freedom ring
As the rivers rise up over the banks
And there's nowhere a poor boy can hideOh, let freedom ring
Come on, let freedom ring
Let freedom ring
Let freedom ringLet there be darkness, let there be light
as the hawk cripples the dove
