Under the Iron Sky

Laibach

Now that you have gone away
I feel so cold, why did I stay?
Remember, I'll remember your face so pale when you left me on that gloomy day...
Time goes by, memories are mine
Still waiting for the moment I'll see you again
Times are changing, memories are fading
I'm waiting for another chance to tell you belong to me
One day
I know we'll meet again
Under the Iron Sky
