

Freaks and Pigs

U.P.O.

Shelter shelter won't you rescue me
My soul has fallen from the sky
I've eaten all that you said to me was true
And I'm facing hatred for my lifeFor so long I've been lost
My face is covered with the signs of hurt and pain
These eyes have realized, the dream lies
We are the freaks and pigs we all areDesperate children towing souls a mile behind
They're facing hatred for their lives
They've eaten up all that you said to them was true
They're paralyzing their own mindsFor so long I've been lost
My face is covered with the signs of hurt and pain
These eyes have realized, the dream lies
We are the freaks and pigs we all are
