Roll Call

Comforter

Try not to take back what you could've leftÂ¹
Regretting nights when your mind went mad
It rolls off, struggles to confuse you

A roll call
You're acting like you have to get it past you

Someone's got you down, you're always crying
Pillow talk around, you're always crying
Someone's got you down you're always crying
Pillow talk around, you're always crying

You dream yourself of a better man
He's getting thrown into every plan
It rolls off, struggles to confuse you
A roll call
You're acting like you have to get it past you

Someone's got you down, you're always crying
Pillow talk around, you're always crying
Someone's got you down, you're always crying
Pillow talk around, you're always crying

Â¹not sure about this part. It could be "what you couldn't have" (or just "could"), or something else...
